Harris Grant

studio world

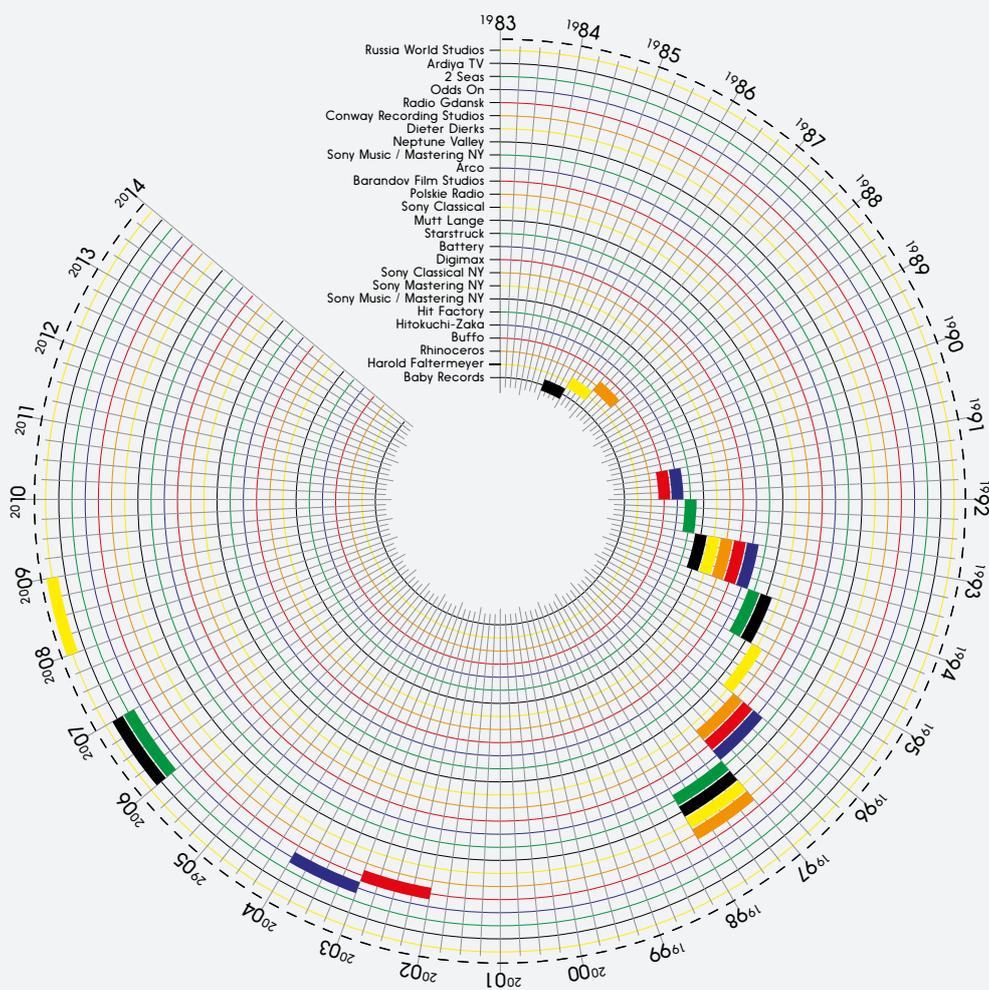

If you love music, you'll hear Neil Grant's unique sonic fingerprint on million-selling recordings from many of the world's most successful and critically acclaimed artists. And if you love film, you'll appreciate the same attention to detail that's gone into Harris Grant's acoustic designs for dubbing suites and mix studios on both sides of the Atlantic. From Sony Classical's German facility to New York's legendary Hit Factory, Harris Grant has shaped the way great records, movies and TV programmes sound.
